R.C. Council Handles All Lake District

Stuart W. Copps of Highlands District Improvement Association announced here that by agreement with the Woodside Fire District all residents of the latter district who come under jurisdiction of the Highlands Police District would register for civilian defense at the Redwood City Hall and their defense activities would come under the Emerald Lake auxiliary to the Redwood City Defense Council. He asked residents of the Emerald Lake district in registering to put on registration blanks the fact they lived in Emerald Lake.

Commuters or others making automobile trips to San Francisco and who could take in navy enlistees for physical examinations are urged by Lieut. Clement R. Baume to telephone the navy recruiting office (Redwood 1678) in the courthouse to see if any young man desires a ride to San Francisco.

Several Now In Cavalry

Announcing names of several enlistees, Joe Bessler, commander of a new cavalry troop being formed at "Fort Bay Meadows," reported here a limited number of enlistments could still be taken.

He reported the following Peninsulans already signed up for the unit: Richard Hoenck, Curtis White, Joe Perotti and Arthur Timbler of Redwood City; Rollo B. Watt and Don Nass, San Mateo; Kenneth Shockey, San Bruno, and Warren W. (Chick) Bridwell, San Carlos.

Any experienced horseman between 18 and 45 is eligible, Bessler said. Anyone enlisting is subject to call at all times. Full information can be obtained from Bessler or other recruiting officers at Bay Meadows track, the office there being open 24 hours a day.

Troop drills have been set for Tuesdays and Fridays at 7:30 p.m.; Saturdays at 1:30 p.m.; Sundays at 9 a.m.

Four Generations Mourn Mrs. Baylor

Mrs. Eva Baylor, 80, who died at a San Mateo hospital at noon Monday, left to mourn her passing four generations of her family. She was the mother of Mrs. Mary Bayne, 810 Stambaugh St., Redwood City, where the deceased had lived for six years; Mrs. Elizabeth Loiselle of Lemington, Ontario, Canada; and of Clarence Baylor of Sacramento.

She was the grandmother of Mrs. Dora Smith, Mrs. Evalyn Ziegler and William and Eugene Bayne; the great grandmother of Mrs. Imogene Herron, Rita and Donald Ziegler; and great-great grandmother of Thomas Herron.

Mrs. Baylor was a native of Iowa and had been ill for about a week. She was the widow of Edward Baylor.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Layng & Tinney Funeral Home.

Redwood City's Deputy Fire Chief Learns About Bombs, and Things

Flash: Falling bomb crashes through skylight of Southern Pacific Depot in San Francisco! Twenty people injured, five seriously, by falling debris. No explosion, but nearly 100 people splashed by an oily, dark liquid! A queer, horseradish smell . . .

What would you do?

This was only one of the many tense problems posed Friday by the Army Chemical Warfare Service to 300 Bay Area fire and police chiefs and volunteer air raid wardens finishing a three-day schooling. Among those learning practical procedure during air raids was Dep. Fire Chief Joseph Lodi of Redwood City, who will pass on the knowledge to local firemen.

The chiefs and wardens learned that should such an event occur—the falling of a bomb under the above conditions—they should take the following steps:

DEPUTY CHIEF LODI
He'll Teach Other Firemen

Police—send 30 police to divert traffic. Medical Corps — send special ambulances to handle mustard gas cases. Public Works —send decontamination squad. Fire and Utilities—no action. Warden—phone details, remove all persons from gas area, call first aid station nearby.

Another problem asked was the proper action to take if an incendiary bomb should fall into the gutter near the White House at Sutter and Grant. In another district the water main supposedly burst and water on the street caused a bomb to scatter fire on sidewalk, burning two passing air raid wardens slightly.

Answer to this question was given incorrectly by one of the pupils who replied that he would call for first aid and public utilities to handle the water main. The Army replied that the warden should treat burns himself as qualified first aid man since they were slight. Water main was located in another district and should be reported only by that warden to lessen confusion. He and burned wardens may let the bomb burn out or cover it with sand.

A realistic picture of actual warfare was graphically outlined as the Army described a scene where an enemy bomber had made a forced landing in Golden Gate Park. It was not damaged, apparently. The crew did not emerge from the plane. What should the warden do?

One warden answered that he would try to capture the crew. Army corrected him. He should phone for police. Too many unknown factors. Crew may be dead but may have set demolition charge in plane while coming down. Crew is probably armed and outnumbers warden.

Other exercises given by the Army dealt with problems of bomb craters, trapped householders, and similar situations. Conducting the examination was Capt. A. G. Rogers. Other schools will be held later and students will later become instructors for more schools.

Mrs. Hattie E. Hoenck Dies of Heart Attack

Mrs. Hattie Emma Hoenck, resident of Redwood City since 1907 and widow of the builder of the San Mateo County Courthouse, died of a heart attack at the family home on Woodside Rd. late Saturday.

The life of Mrs. Hoenck centered around her children, who are well-known here. They are Richard, Hubert, Winifred and Mildred Hoenck of Redwood City, George Hoenck of Gilroy and Mrs. Georgianna Carroll of San Francisco.

Born in Windom, Minn., in 1882, Mrs. Hoenck lived there until she came with her parents to Gilroy in 1900. She came to Redwood City when her late husband was engaged to construct the courthouse. Mr. Hoenck died in 1932.

Redwood City-zens who have business in the city hall were reminded today by City Manager C. L. Dimmitt that new blackout hours were effective Monday, as ordered by the city council. The hours will be 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. daily (instead of 9 to 5) and 9 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturdays.

TANNERY WHISTLE CHANGED

Frank Tanney's whistle, which formerly sounded at 8 a.m., 12 noon, 1 and 5 p.m., will in the future be sounded at 7:30 a.m., 12 noon, 1 and 4:30 p.m., officials announced today.

Sequoia First Aid Courses Continue

An invitation for parents to "sit in" during Red Cross first aid courses in the Sequoia High School boys' gymnasium during the Christmas vacation was extended here by Frank Griffin, director of boys' physicial education.

First aid courses are being conducted by the physicial education staff for Sequoia students during vacation. There were 109 boys who signed up for the courses, a continuation of classes held during P. E. periods for the past couple of weeks.

The classes during the vacation are held on Monday, Tuesday and Friday mornings from 10 to 12 o'clock and on evenings of the same days from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock. The full standard Red Cross course is given.

Eagles Offer Aid To Defense Council

Services of the organization as a unit and of its members as individuals were offered the Redwood City defense council in a resolution passed by Redwood Citq Order of Eagles Friday at a meeting at which $25 was voted to the current war fund drive of the Red Cross. Atty. Edmund Scott was speaker, discussing the Bill of Rights.

S.M. Man Held Here On Statutory Charge

Charged by Mrs. Eunice Doherty, 33, of San Mateo, with criminally attacking her Friday instead of driving her to a tavern as he agreed to do when she met him in another cocktail lounge, Carlet Madison Daniel, 27, today faced rape charges. He was arrested when he was found asleep in his car where Mrs. Doherty claimed the attack took place. He was freed on $1000 bail.

It's Registration Time For Horses and Mules

SAN MATEO (AP)—It's registration time for all horses and mules on the West Coast, between 3 and 10 years old.

Lieut.-Col. F. K. Koester, in charge of the War Department's Western Remount Area Headquarters here, in calling today for such registration, said the census of animals of a useful military age "is simply a most desirable step in our defense preparations," and that it is not a draft of animal resources.

Atherton Man Named S.P. Vice President

D. J. Russell of Atherton, who began his railroad career in 1920 after he was graduated from Stanford University, was vice president of the Southern Pacific today. Russell, former superintendent of the Los Angeles division, was appointed by Pres. A. T. Mercier, a resident of Palo Alto.

There were 50,000 workers employed in the aircraft industry Jan. 1, 1940; by January, 1941, the number had increased to 125,000.

MENLO PARK NEWS NOTES

BY D. E. O'KEEFE

MENLO PARK—The scarcity of cottages for rent in Menlo Park is becoming alarming. Many persons come here every week seeking homes but cannot find any. Owing to the high cost of material, no new houses have been erected for sometime.

★ ★ ★

Because of the difficulty in securing material and men, work on the new theater building has been postponed indefinitely.

★ ★ ★

Several young men in town are preparing to leave for the army. Others in the draft are expected to be called early next month. About 50 in all are supposed to join the forces against the enemy.

★ ★ ★

Because of the war, no Christmas festivities were held publicly. Private homes enjoyed the customary tree and the exchange of gifts was as usual.

★ ★ ★

A wealthy lady at Atherton was severely shocked this week when she asked her Japanese maid to assist in putting on her coat. The maid complied but in doing so calmly remarked, "Madam, a year from now you will be putting on my coat."

★ ★ ★

Several flocks of wild pigeons were seen here this week, but to date robins have made no appearance. Old-time farmers always contended that the appearance of the bird at this time was a sure sign of a rainy season. Let's hope so.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Rena Lynch arrived here from Reno, Nev., Tuesday to spend the holidays with friends. Mrs. Lynch is connected with the University of Nevada.

★ ★ ★

The Menlo Park Post Office did more business this Christmas than ever before in the history of the office. More packages were delivered than in many years. This is partly due to the increased population of Menlo Park and vicinity.

★ ★ ★

Work of moving back the stores on the highway to widen the thoroughfare is in progress. The old brick building of Duff & Doyle on the corner of Santa Cruz Ave. will start moving right after the first of the year. This is the largest structure in town and was originally built in 1874.

★ ★ ★

It is rumored that a large apartment house is to be erected on Pine St. shortly after the first of the year. A Palo Alto concern is to do the building.

Stilleson Brings Suit For Accident Injuries

Christian Stilleson of 43 Finger Ave., Redwood City, has filed a $20,000 damage suit in superior court against Roy Coombes, a minor, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peirce Coombes, 600 Brewster Ave., Redwood City, for injuries incurred in an accident Jan. 7. Stilleson avers he was struck by a car driven by young Coombes. Stilleson is represented by Atty. Edmund Scott.

New Musicale Due at Carlos

Romantic and musical threesome are Brian Donlevy, Mary Martin and Bing Crosby, who lead the cast of the new melody and laugh hit, "Birth of the Blues" which opens at the Carlos Theater on Christmas Day and runs the rest of this week. Linked up in the joyful proceedings are Carolyn Lee and Rochester. "Henry Aldrich for President" is the accompanying feature.

Adequate Program for 1942

Home Building Will Cause Only Small Drain on Vital Materials

An adequate home-building program for 1942, in the Northern California area, can be completed with only a very small drain on critical materials, says Bernard B. Barber, chairman of Northern California Homes Foundation. "As against this," continues Mr. Barber, "is the assurance of employment for hundreds of thousands of people in the building trades, which is also an important part of our defense program.

"In the case of critical materials such as steel, estimated home-building requirements for 1942 would be only 1.12 per cent of the total expected production capacity of the nation. The amount of copper required is estimated to be about 1.1 per cent; and zinc, 1.2 per cent.

"The workers who make defense possible deserve adequate homes and everything that can be done should be done to see that these small amounts of critical materials are made available for housing purposes in the interests of continued employment and workers' morale.

THINK OF TOMORROW

"We must think about tomorrow. We must realize that the American home is still one of the chief weapons in our battle for the continuance of our democratic way of living.

"Activities in the home-building field need not be seriously curtailed in order to carry on other parts of the defense program, with careful priority procedure and administration. The industry on its part will explore every avenue open to it for substitute materials, especially for the metals that we well know must be rationed.

LUMBER AVAILABLE

"Lumber which is mainly used in small home building is not on the critical list of materials. Retail lumber and building material dealers in the Northern California territory are making every effort to provide adequate supplies."

"Two Answer Books on Home Building" will be sent upon postcard request to Northern California Homes Foundation, 1833 Broadway, Fresno.

FILLING WITH FLAVOR

Most children like peanut butter sandwiches, but here's a filling that has a little "different" flavor. To a half cup of peanut butter add a third cup fresh orange juice, and a little salt. Beat until smooth and creamy. You can add a little more orange juice, if necessary, to make the mixture spread easily. It's nice on graham bread.

M. M. Litvinoff who has been appointed Soviet Ambassador to the United States visited here in 1933.

Warmth in Modern Design

Here's a dinette set of sun-tan solid maple in the new "American way" fashion for modern furniture. Its warmth and freedom of line get it away from cold geometric tendencies of earlier moderns. Dinnerware in cover designs is an example of the trend toward an American note in hand-painted china.

Pillows Are Gay Gift Under Christmas Tree

Pillows being shown in the stores this Winter are just as attractive in their tickings as they are encased in fine linens. For that reason, they will present a most attractive appearance when they are removed from their gift wrappings. If they are being given from one member of the family to another, no wrapping is needed. Just tie big red and green ribbons around them.

Either natural down or goose feathers (or a mixture of the two, depending upon the degree of softness desired), make the best filling for gift pillows. Thus filled, pillows are buoyant enough to support the head without letting it sink down too far, and at the same time, are so resilient that they quickly spring back into shape.

Here's a pillow buying tip: the best pillows are light in weight. An average sized goose feather pillow should weigh about 2½ pounds. One filled with down will weigh about a pound less.

Draperies Add Dash Of Color to Room

Why not do over that room you're tired of and add a bit more color to the decorative scheme by buying new draperies? These may be had custom-made, and the wide variety of patterns and colors available leaves no excuse for "misfits."

One of the most beautiful of the new patterns is a heavy blue damask with big white roses on it. Similar is a coral damask with long sprays of flowers in a darker shade.

It's difficult to mix prints attractively, so if your chairs are upholstered in floral material, try some suave striped faille, with an olive background and vertical stripes graded from tan to deep coffee color.

Roses, daisies, forget-me-nots, and jonquils may not all bloom at the same time, but you can have them in your house all year 'round. For they form a splashy print on a background of grey-blue.

THAT'S REALLY LOSING

WARSAW, N.Y. (AP)—Ernest D. Olin will wash dishes for 75 guests at a luncheon. He was captain of a team which lost an Agricultural Conservation Service attendance contest.

Even the simplest of towels gains distinction when it is given an attractive monogram. At most stores, you can arrange for good looking initials to be applied to towels, linens, etc. "Exclusively for you," is what your gift says when it contains the recipient's "trade mark."

Hassock Rates High At Filling Many Duties

Hassocks rate as one of the best selling gifts at Christmas time. Here are some of the duties they perform: They are admirable to sit on by the fireside. They serve as an ottoman, when placed before a cushioned chair. Many women like them as a dressing table bench. They are an excellent extra knock-about seat for study, game room or card room. In fact, you could call them "all purpose" furniture.

Music for Christmas

Many Will Sing Carols Around New Yule Piano

When your family and friends gather on Christmas to lift their voices in your favorite carols, will it be around a new piano in the living room? The answer will be yes in thousands of homes, for dealers report the piano is riding a crest of popularity unequaled since the middle "twenties."

A real thrill is awaiting the shopper who is planning a musical gift for the family. The new pianos are more beautiful than ever. Whether her choice is to be a compact little console or a classic grand, she will find scores to choose from in exquisite designs and lovely woods.

SEASONED WOOD

Because the wood used in piano making must be seasoned for years before it is used, there is no decrease in the variety of finishes available this year. American woods are both popular and plentiful and, for the time being at least, there are enough imported woods to fill the demand. Walnut and mahogany continue the most popular, with pine and maple favored for Early American rooms.

There is more to buying a piano than picking out a good looking piece of furniture, however. A piano has a part in the life of your home, as well as in its appearance. While other articles are mute, the piano has a voice. The voice, or tone, must be given first consideration by the shopper.

The average woman will have no difficulty in picking out a piano that will enhance the beauty of her home. The scores of available designs make that easy. Selecting one with good construction need not be difficult, if she follows some simple rules.

RULES IN BUYING

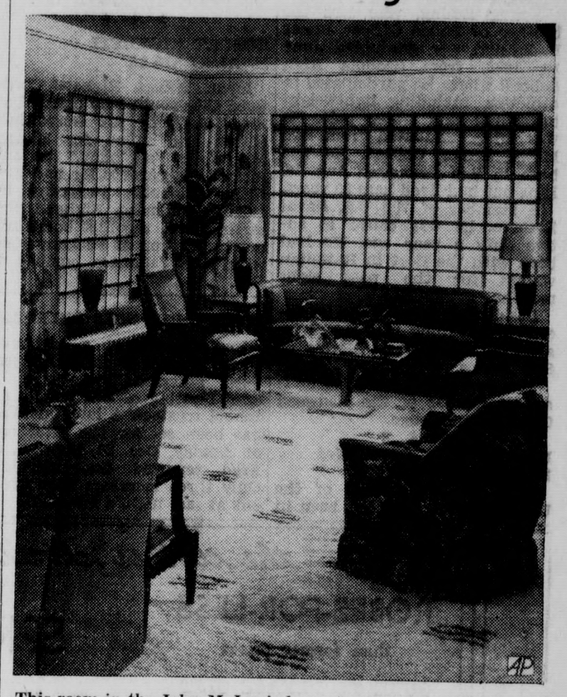
Here are things she should do: buy a reputable make from a store in which she has confidence; buy a piano that blends with the room; buy one that is guaranteed satisfactory; choose the piano with the tone she likes best (tone is a matter of individual preference); be sure that the action responds well to the touch of the person who is to play it.

She should not: buy an inferior piano just because it is to be used by beginners; base her selection primarily on price; buy for appearance alone.

HEARTY SANDWICH

Ever try slices of broiled crisp bacon and peanut butter between slices of whole wheat bread? A good sandwich, and hearty.

Old, New in Living Room



This room in the John M. Lewis home in Chicago combines modern and period themes in line with a popular trend.

LACQUERED PIECES SHOWN

Colorful lacquered occasional pieces are to be found sparingly, here and there, among Christmas furniture. They combine effectively and casually with the walnut and mahogany with which they are shown.

LEMON HELPS FLAVOR

A dash of lemon juice does wonders to bring out flavors. Try it on a slice of juicy broiled steak, a sliver of iced melon, in a clear soup, on fish of course, over stewed fruits, salads, some vegetables?

Robert Edling, San Carlos Youth, Dies of Injuries Suffered in Hawaii Battle

SAN CARLOS—Earlier reported injured in the Battle of Hawaii, presumably on Dec. 7, Robert Norris Edling, 22-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius M. Edling of 1300 Magnolia Ave., San Carlos, was revealed Friday to have died of his wounds.

His parents received a telegram to this effect from the U.S. Navy Department in Washington.

Young Edling, who was the brother of Police Officer James E. Edling, was graduated June 10, 1938, from Sequoia High School, where he participated in athletics, including lightweight basketball and water polo. He was later graduated from San Mateo Junior College. He was born in San Francisco Aug. 16, 1919, but had lived here 20 years.

A member of the U.S. Naval Reserve, he was called to active duty a year ago. He had been with the fleet in Hawaiian waters for the past eight months.

Besides his parents and brother, young Edling is survived by a sister, Mrs. Robert Herbig of San Carlos.

The young seaman's father is a past master of the Redwood City Masonic lodge.

ROBERT RIGHETTI IS ALSO 'OKAY'

Lieut. Robert Righetti, Redwood City youth who enlisted in the U.S. Army Air Corps last March and sailed for Hawaii Nov. 7, is "all okay," he informed his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Righetti, yesterday by cable. Lieutenant Righetti was serving with the 31st bombardment squadron at Hickam Field when the Japanese bombed it Dec. 7.

SCHOOL BUSINESS DELAYED

Replacement of a bus and other pending business matters were deferred Friday at a brief meeting of Sequoia High School trustees. A later meeting has been set for the afternoon of Sunday, Dec. 28, Supt. A. C. Argo reported this morning. Only three members were present at last night's meeting.

DON'T TAKE THIS LYING DOWN . . .

When men are fighting and dying, you must do your part. Be sure you enlist your DOLLARS for DEFENSE. Back our armed forces—and protect your own life—with every single dollar and dime you can.

America must have a steady flow of money pouring in every day to help beat back our enemies.

Put Dimes into Defense Stamps. And put Dollars into Bonds. Buy now. Buy every pay day. Buy as often as you can.

Don't take this lying down.

CHILDREN START FIRE

Civilian Defense Aides Wear White Armbands

Here's what the authorized emergency worker under the civilian defense setup will wear to identify himself:

A white arm band about five inches in width bearing the letters, "CD", which sand for Civilian Defense. Also there will be a small number on the band, corresponding with the regular identification card to be issued, and small letters designating the community represented.

In case of a duplicate initial letter, as in case of Burlingame and Bayshore, several letters will be given.

During most of world history the climate has been milder and less varied than at present.
